THE KINKAIDIAN 1959

This Kinkaidian speaks for the close cooperation in the class of 1959, for the helpful contributions of interested onlookers from other classes, and for the indispensable guidance of faculty advisors. In presenting this annual we hope that it combines tradition and worthy innovation, and that it will afford pleasurable memories of 1958 and 1959.

MR. WALTER GOLDSTON

We are indeed honored to have in our Kinkaidian this fine etching of the late Walter L. Goldston, who served Kinkaid so significantly as a member of the Board of Trustees. Mr. Goldston is remembered for the many ways in which he contributed to the business and institutional life of Houston. At Kinkaid we are proud that the high school wing bears his name and we are grateful for his contributions to the building of our campus. We hope that all future classes of the high school will continue to follow those paths which are indicative of our high esteem of Mr. Goldston's memory.

MRS. KINKAID

Founder

In fifty one years Kinkaid has grown from a one room building to one of the most beautiful and outstanding preparatory schools in the country. This could have only been accomplished through the work of our beloved Mrs. Kinkaid, who was known to us all as a friend and advisor.

She devoted her lifetime to the betterment of education for children. Her goal was attained with the final opening of the new Kinkaid School.

Mrs. Kinkaid will live in our memories forever, as she stands for the symbol of the spirit of Kinkaid.

MR. JOHN H. COOPER

"The world is a looking glass and gives back to every man the reflection of his own face." (William Makepeace Thackeray).

I hope that in your Kinkaid years you have learned the truth in Thackeray's assertion that our world is largely what we choose to make it. This does not mean that we are uninfluenced by outside pressures, but rather that these need not control us. Is this perhaps the characteristic which distinguishes us from the jelly-fish and qualifies us for the title of Free Men?

In the rougher moments of your Freshman year, you may be tempted to feel abused, to blame your disappointments on someone or something else. How much of this will be of your own doing? Will your looking glass be giving back but your own reflection?

TO THE STUDENT BODY -

We cannot get an education at Kinkaid. We can, however, get something equally valuable—preparation for an education. Indeed the name of the school is Kinkaid Preparatory School.

This preparation is not the luxury it once was. It is a necessity. We live now in an age keyed by competition—competition between groups, competition between peoples. If we want to keep pace with the world around us, we have to enter this competition. It is here that the word “preparation” comes in, for without preparation we have little chance for success.

Kinkaid can prepare us for an education in universities and the School of Hard Knocks, which in turn can prepare us for the competition of a fast-paced world. I say “can” prepare us because Kinkaid can only offer to prepare us.

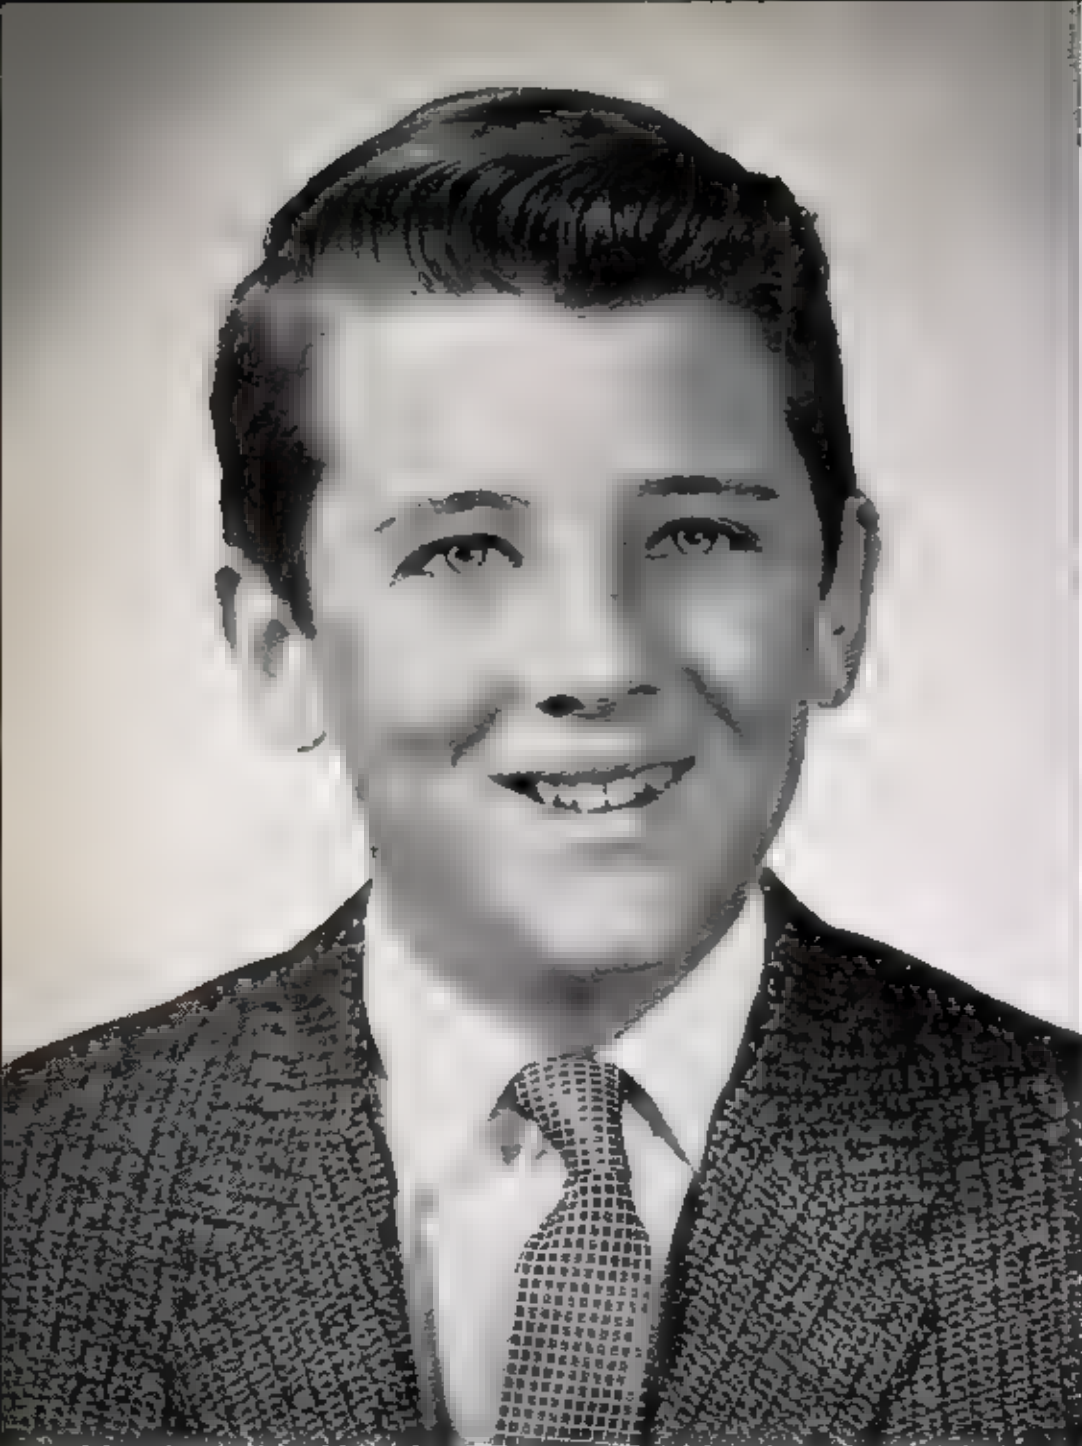

We must think twice before we accept this offer, for it is not an offer without requirements. If we accept the challenge we must expect to accept responsibility, use all our self-control, and work continually. We come to Kinkaid to take something, not to be given something. It still holds true that if we want something worthwhile we must work for it, and this holds particularly true in the development of our minds. We cannot get knowledge through a strawberry-flavored straw held by an obliging teacher. If we start right now by signing up for that extra science credit or spending an extra hour on our English review, by the time graduation hits us, we’ll be going to the college we’ve always dreamed of, not just the one that will take us.

Now, because this world of competition has so many people who have prepared themselves in their studies as well or better than we, solid scholastic accomplishment is not enough. Kinkaid, fortunately, offers more—the opportunity to develop our personalities, another offer we must take advantage of, and for the most of us, a much more pleasant one. We can’t think that we’re cheating our studies when we take a club we have time for or go out for a sport we can fit into our schedules. In all probability, we’ll meet more people than robots when we enter the world of competition, and again we need preparation, this time social preparation.

All this preparation is going to take co-operation. The school will meet us half way, but we’ve got to go that other half.

BEN REED

RUSTY GOLDSMITH

During the Christmas holidays, it was our sad experience to lose by death two of our Kinkaid group—a member of our present student body, Ben Reed, and a recent graduate, Rusty Goldsmith. We cannot help but feel a sense of shock and deep loss, for there is real tragedy in the life cut off before its fulfillment. Many of us had only a limited opportunity to know Ben. We shall remember him for his enthusiasm and his humor. We saw enough of him to know that he had within him the potentials of a fine man. Rusty Goldsmith spent the last year of life suffering under the continued assault of a dread disease. In this time, he gave to all of us an example of unusual courage. He never complained and in the face of great pain maintained his poise and his love of life.

FALCONS	7
REBELS	0

On September 12, in the new stadium, the Kinkaid Falcons opened the season with a 7-0 victory over the Mt. Carmel Rebels. Gordon Smith, Chip Stanberry, and Keith Beeman led the Falcon defense. Kinkaid scored early in the first quarter, when Gordon Smith took a handoff from quarterback Kenny Knapp, and went over. Henry Powers kicked the extra point. Three times during the remainder of the game, Kinkaid was inside of the Rebel's 10 yard line, but could not make it over.

COLTS	12

The following week, Kinkaid suffered a defeat at the hands of the Marion Colts. Marion made their first touchdown in the first quarter. An attempt to run over for 2 extra points was stopped by the Kinkaid line. The Falcons made a drive in the second quarter from their 38 yard line to the Marion 25, but fumbled and lost the ball. In the 3rd quarter Kinkaid advanced to the Colt's 40 yard line, before being turned back by a strong Marion line. Marion scored again in the fourth quarter, and again the attempt for extra points was put down. The final score was Marion 12 Kinkaid 0.

REBELS	6

On October 3, Kinkaid played host to the St. John's Rebels. A fighting Falcon team held the Rebels scoreless until the fourth quarter. Kinkaid did an exceptional job, despite the fact that the Falcons were outweighed, and lost Gordon Smith from the game in the second quarter when he suffered an ankle injury. This game was considered to be the best game Kinkaid played all season. The final score was 6-0, St. John's over Kinkaid.

RAMBLERS	12

On October 10, the Kinkaid Falcons traveled to Bryan, and scoring all the touchdowns they had not scored before, trounced the Allan Academy Ramblers 32-12. The Falcons had no trouble making two touchdowns in the first half, with both Gordon Smith and Keith Beeman scoring. Chip Stanberry connected with a pass from Freddy Knapp for two extra points. The second half was almost a repetition of the first. Smith and Willard Pratt each went over for a touchdown. Allan scored twice, once on a 65 yard run, and again on an 85 yard run back after a pass interception. Freddy Knapp pulled a quarterback sneak, which gave Kinkaid its final score of the game.

On October 17, Kinkaid gained its second conference victory of the season from St. Stephen's at Kinkaid Stadium. The Falcons' defense turned the Spartans back four times from within the 10 yard line. ## LUTHERN WRITE-UP

The Luthern game, played at the new Kinkaid stadium, was a rough game. Kinkaid was unfortunate in losing its halfback and having to substitute for many on the first string. Despite the handicap, Kinkaid played a hard game against Luthern. Unable to get hold of the ball for any length of time, the Kinkaid defense played hard and held Luthern to only      touchdowns. Being the last game of the year the Kinkaid team played with spirit and determination, but lost to Luthern.

DEDICATION OF ACTIVITY SECTION

Activities play a vital part in our everyday life at Kinkaid. Sports, extracurricular activities, clubs, and the many memorable events we've held in the Auditorium, have contributed the spirit and leadership which make the student body of Kinkaid a unified one.

We dedicate this section of the Annual to those activities which mean so much to us and to the spirit of Kinkaid.

HALF CENTURY . . . Of Serving a Great People in a Great Section of Our Nation

During all these years, hundreds of thousands of families and individuals of the Southwest have reaped the reward of financial security through millions of dollars of Great Southern benefits received by living policyowners and beneficiaries.

Other thousands today own hundreds of millions of Great Southern protection and peace of mind which assures economic welfare for themselves and their loved ones in the future.

The Great Southern provides men and women the opportunity to acquire financial independence in accordance with their ability and desire to do so—a basic concept of American freedom and the dignity of man.

“Best in the Class”

is an honor every ambitious student strives for. It means, of course, an extra investment in time and effort to achieve this goal, but as with everything worthwhile, the prize justifies the price.

Extra effort, too, was required to make natural gas the world's most dependable, most economical fuel service. Our prize . . . the thousands of satisfied natural gas users in home and industry.
